I. Reading Comprehension (1 mark each)

Read the following text, and then answer the questions below:

With the advancement in technology, people can now do various things at the comfort of their homes, and one of those things is electronic shopping which was invented by an English inventor named Michael Aldrich in 1979. Electronic shopping allows people to buy things online without actually going to physical stores. The internet allows people to order everything from clothes to shoes to smart phones to appliances.

can't handle crowded places and malls to shop, so they can order anything at any time from home. By browsing different shopping store websites or mobile phone applications e.g. Amazon, IKEA, Noon, SACO, eXtra and Jarir Book Store, you can choose the product according to your needs and make an online payment through your debit or credit card.

However, there are some websites that are fake and provide you with great offers to tempt you and trick you at the end. In order to avoid being cheated later on, you should do online shopping carefully and wisely.
